SNOW THAT

the sexual revolution is in full swing, the Old Boy is definitely feeling its effects. To say the least. He is tossed, turned and trampled by the winds of constant change. But throughout the turmoil and tumult the Ancient One maintains his legendary sense of humor and ridiculously high editorial standards. After all no mere female ever scared the Old One, much less petrified him.

As Bob Dylan said, "The times they are a changing. . ." But then what does a thirty-five year old Jew from Minnesota know about life? Snow, snow, and more snow. That may put him in great demand back East but as far as the Old One is concerned he can fuck off. So can you.

But let's get back to the issue here. Women. The Old Boy has always had a certain fondness for these exquisite creatures. After all they are the only other intelligent species on this planet although it must be admitted that the Old Boy's interest in women often takes a more physical turn.

Be Like Me

by Jan Barath

LESSON ONE — BUDGET YOUR TIME

The first thing you must do if you are to be like me is to budget your time. To budget your time, you must decide what is important to you and how much time you want to spend doing it. Try to leave at least a few minutes each day for unexpected diversions. You must keep these diversions to a minimum, however. This is how:

- 1) Limit conversations
- 2) Don't buy expensive stereos
- 3) Ignore strangers
- 4) Don't get stoned
- 5) Don't watch TV
- 6) Don't drop acid

Unless, of course, these are the things you budgeted time for. But remember, stick to your budget!

LESSON TWO — INCREASE YOUR AWARENESS

Another thing you must do if you are to be like me is to increase your awareness. To increase your awareness, you must first drink a lot of coffee. Get a lot of sleep. Go to the bathroom when necessary. Look out for situations that threaten to force you into participation. Listen to those who convey necessary information. Wear comfortable clothing.

Try to obey traffic signs (Ignore them if you are riding a bicycle). Read the AP News Summary. Watch a lot of television.

LESSON THREE — BE A SUCCESSFUL PERSON

Another way to be like me is to be a successful person. To become a successful person, you must first start out with many superior qualities.

CAFFEINE FIENDS

SAY MARY ANN, WANT TO GO TO THE SODA SHOP?

"GOSH" PETE, THAT WOULD BE "SWELL."

PSSST.

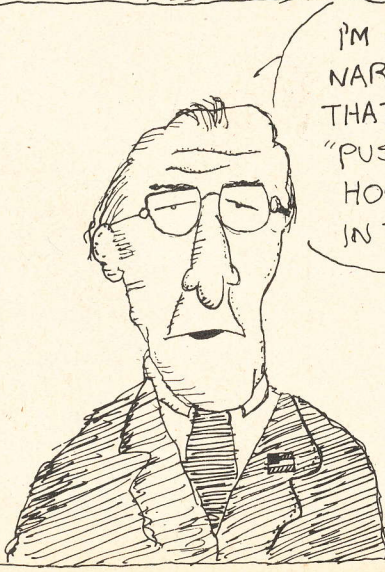

HEY, PSSST... C'MON KIDS.

"CRIPES" MARY ANN, HE CAN'T HURT US.

THAT MAN LOOKS UNSAVORY, PETE.

OH YES HE CAN PETE !

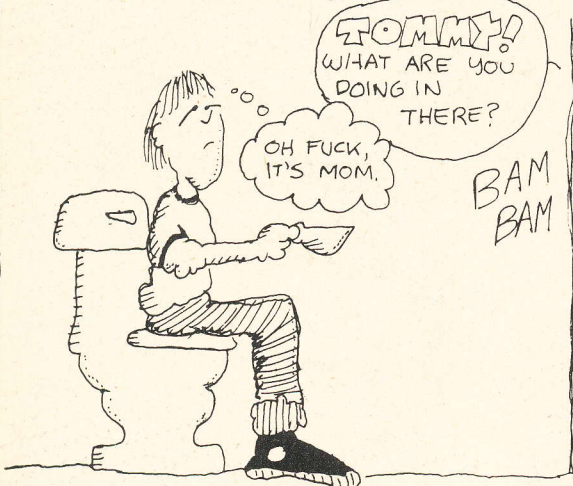

I'M AN FBI AGENT IN CHARGE OF NARCOTICS INVESTIGATION, AND THAT MAN IS A DEADLY CAFFEINE "PUSHER," OUT TO GET YOUNG PEOPLE HOOKED ON "COFFEE," AS IT'S CALLED IN THE DRUG "LINGO."

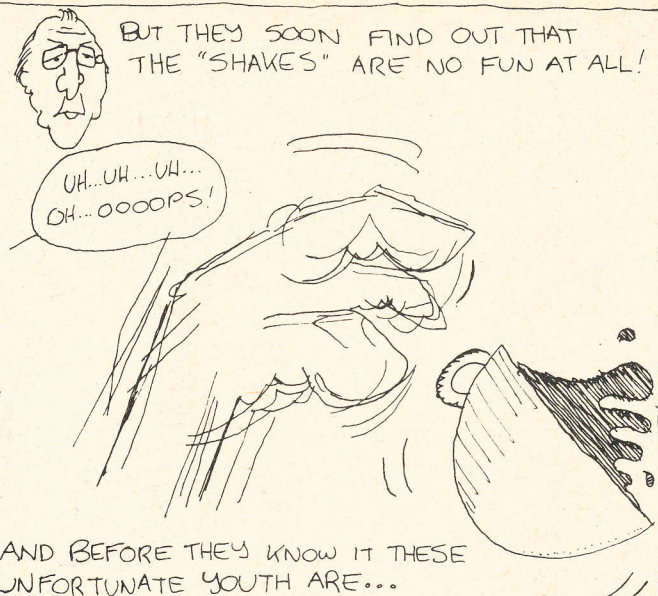

"GOLLY!"

A REAL G-MAN!

MOST "COFFEE" DRINKERS START FOR "KICKS," ENJOYING THE THRILL OF THE FORBIDDEN.

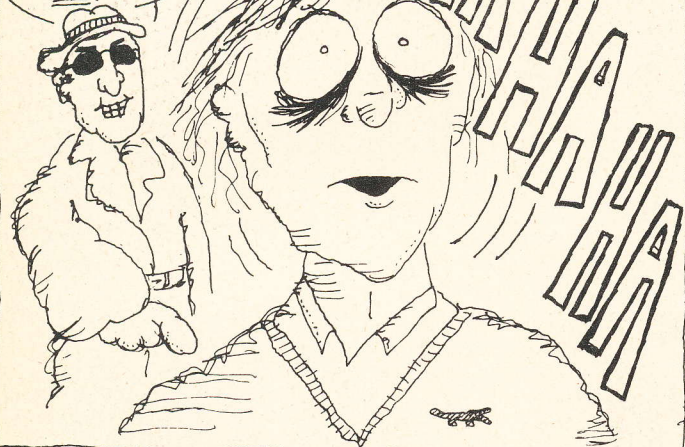

BUT THEY SOON FIND OUT THAT THE "SHAKES" ARE NO FUN AT ALL!

AND BEFORE THEY KNOW IT THESE UNFORTUNATE YOUTH ARE...

... CAFFEINE ADDICTS!

SORRY KID, FROM NOW ON YOU'VE GOTTA PAY!

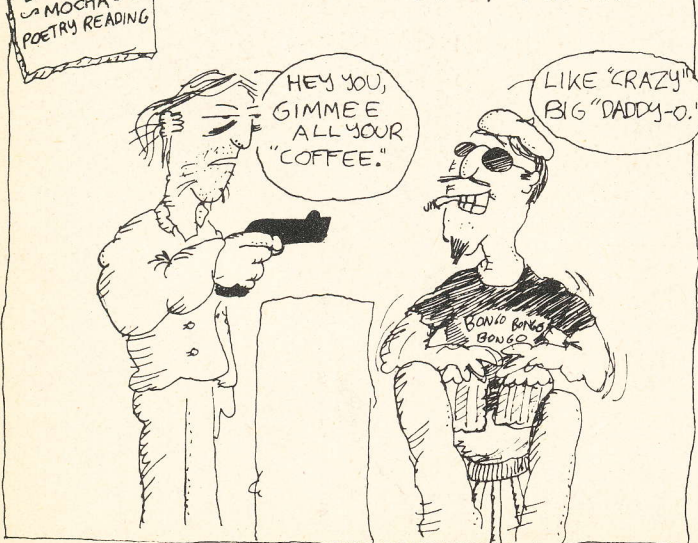

SLOWLY THEY PROGRESS, FROM MILK AND SUGAR, UNTIL THEY GET TO THE POINT WHERE THEY "TAKE IT BLACK."

ESPRESSO MOCHA POETRY READING

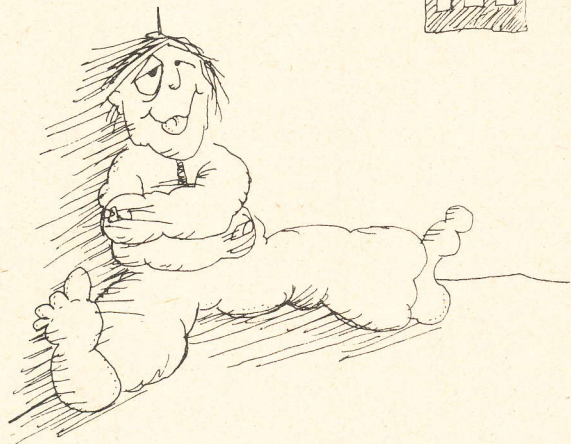

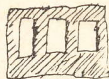

THESE FIENDS WILL STOP AT NOTHING TO GET A "FIX"...

... OR TO SATISFY THEIR OTHER SORDID DESIRES.

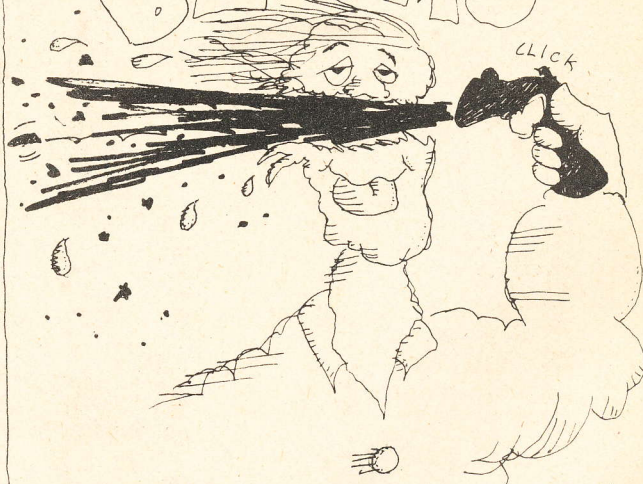

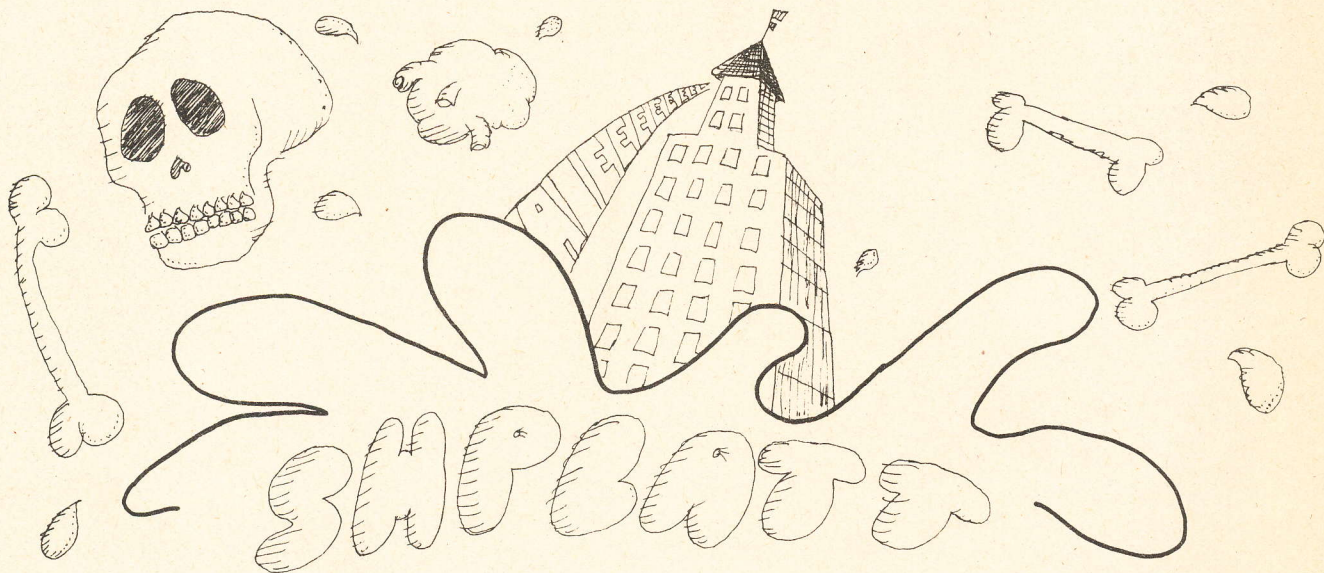

BUT EVENTUALLY THESE MANIACS GO TOTALLY INSANE AND GET THEIR JUST DESSERTS!

BLAMO

HANDY

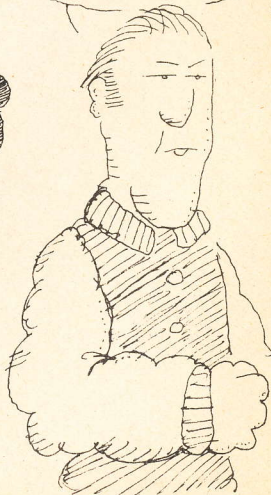

SO REMEMBER MARYANN AND PETE: CAFFEINE'S NOT FOR "KICKS," IT'S FOR "KEEPS."

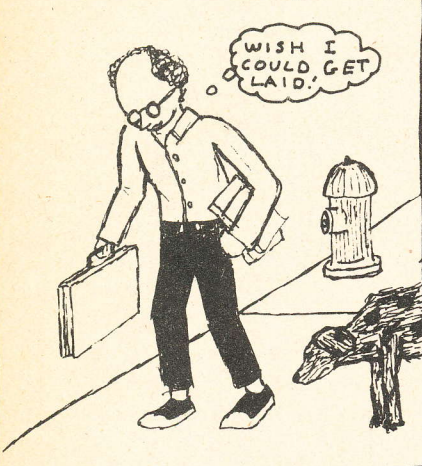

"WOW!" HE'S GONE.

C'MON MARYANN, LET'S GO WARN "THE GANG."

ONE WOULD PROBABLY STEAL NO SECOND GLANCE PASSING PHIL MAJORS ON THE STREET.

BUT LITTLE DID HIS PROFESSORS AND FELLOW-STUDENTS KNOW; FOR WITH THE UTTERING OF THE MYSTICAL WORDS "COGITO ERGO SUM," PHIL MAJORS WAS TRANSFORMED INTO...

OVERMAN!

This Week: A Co-ed In Trouble

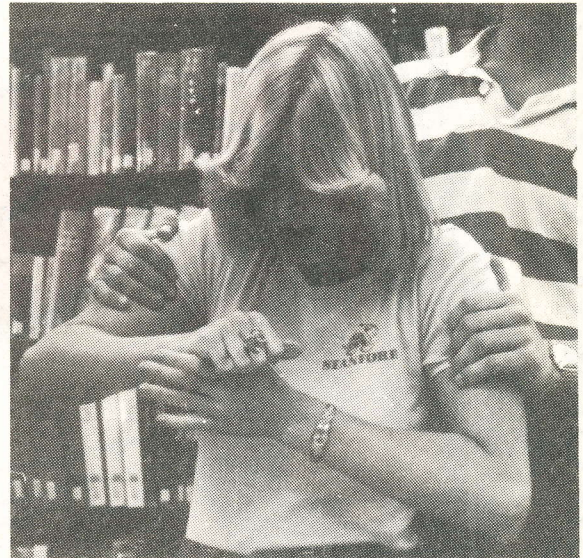

Our Story: A diligent lass studies for her Human Sexuality final, "Oh, why did I miss Monday's lab?"

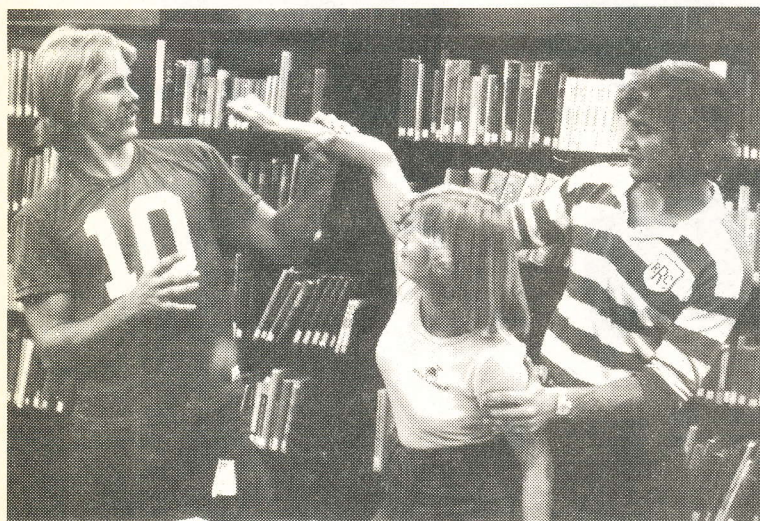

Suddenly, two frat-rats appear with time on their hands and evil on their minds. "Hey baby, how about a study break in my Porsche Carrera?" "Bug off, creeps!"

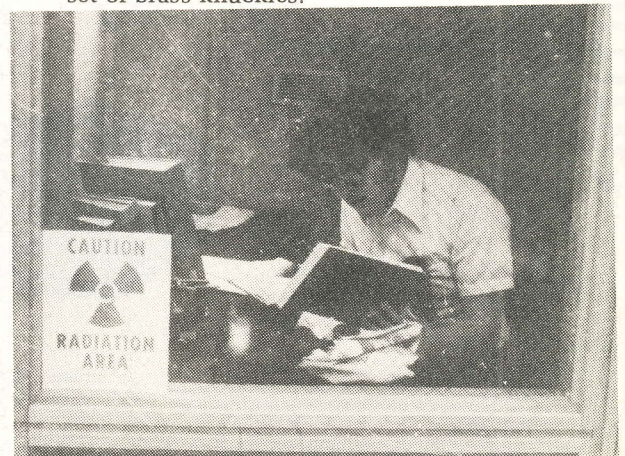

"That's not very friendly, is it?" "She'll be friendly enough when we get her back to the HOUSE!"

Remembering last quarter's 'Self Defense for Women,' the plucky coed creates a makeshift set of brass knuckles.

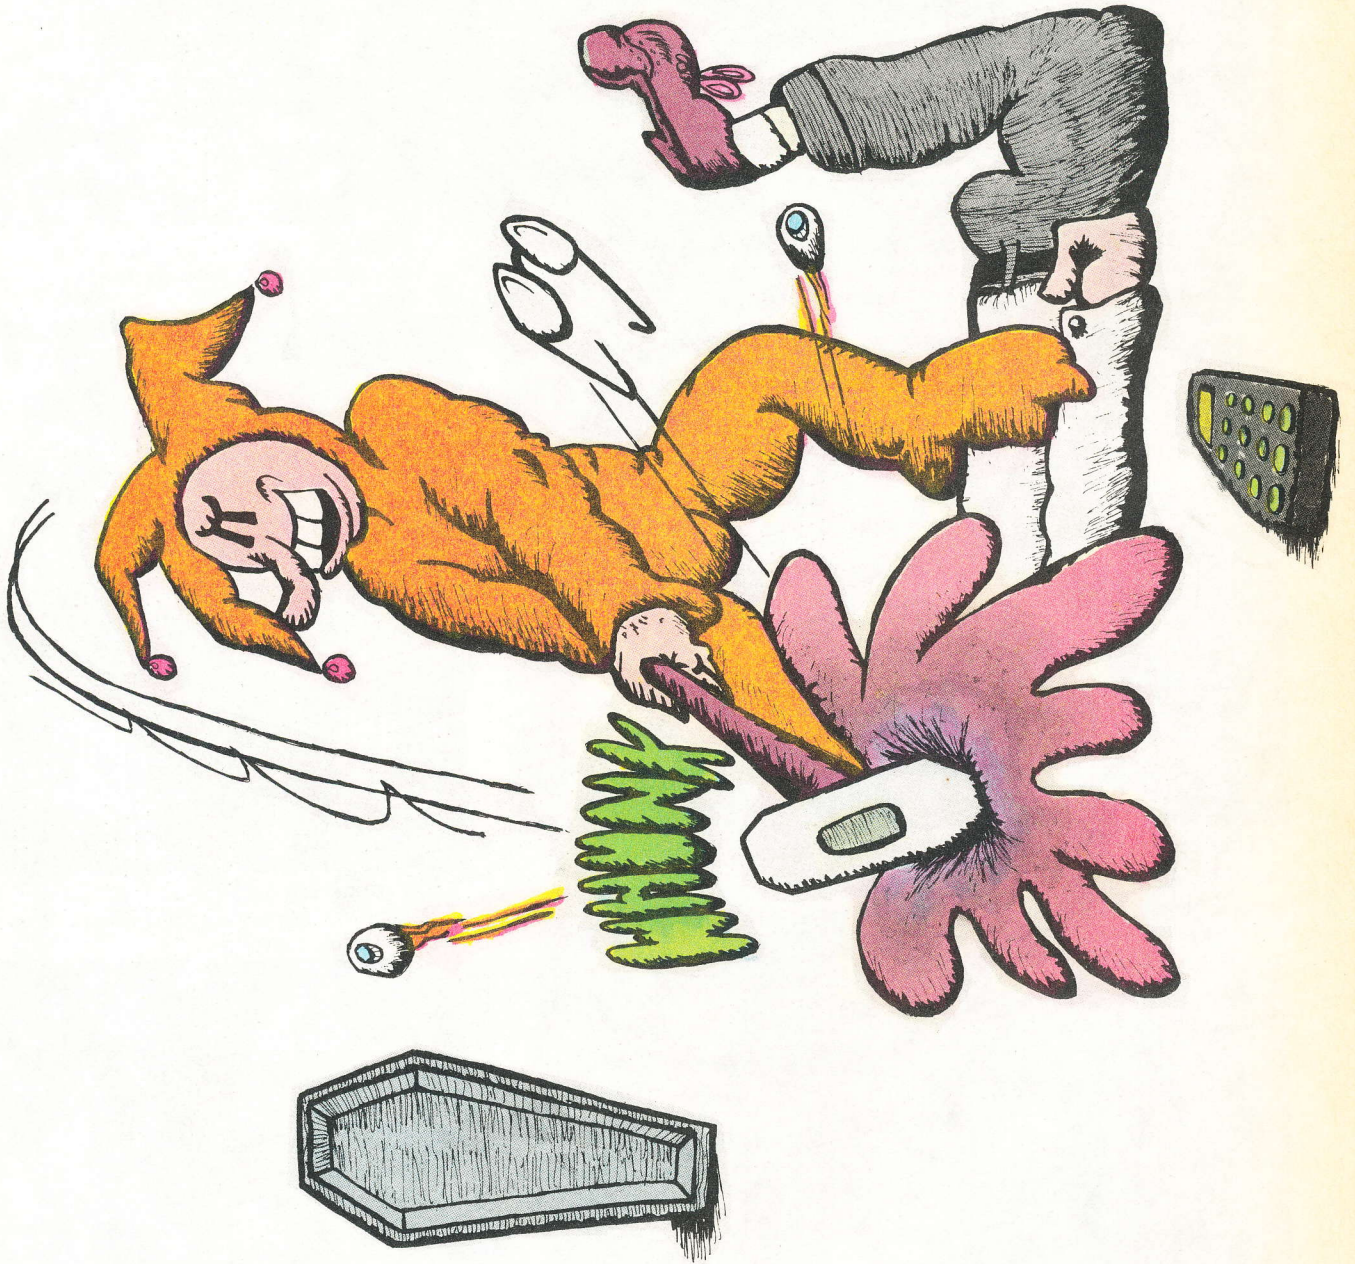

"Take that you scum!" "Well, well, now that's better. We'll pick up your trailermate too."

Meanwhile two floors below, our hero studies for next quarter's CE 114 final.

BE LIKE ME. . .

You must have high intelligence. Many "successful" persons are not intelligent, but they are not happy. You must be good looking. Disgusting appearance is the quickest road to unhappiness. You must have a specific talent.

Your parents must be very wealthy. Only teenagers with nice cars can become successful adults (There is no such thing as a successful teenager). The rest get zits and live in squalor or New York.

Finally, to be a successful person, you must be well educated and programmed. Mediocre programs lead to mediocre people.

LESSON FOUR — BE ANAL RETENTIVE

Another thing you must do if you are to be like me is to be anal retentive. Being anal retentive is not as easy as it sounds. To begin with, arrange the bills in your wallet in denominational order. Keep all pencils and pens in one place (A pencil holder is perfect!) Always feel uncomfortable asking where the bathroom is.

Make lists, many lists. First, list your plan for the day, including plot, theme, and all sources. Second, list all friends, with rank and amount of money they owe you (Never lend money!). Then, list the things you want to think about.

Keep track of local phone calls. Keep ice cube trays full. Keep a different colored notebook for each class, and save all class related documents forever. Wear a digital watch, and compare to the exact time frequently. Make sure stall-type toilets are securely shut. Finally, never question your existence.

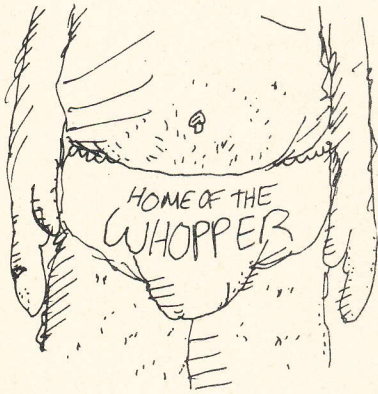

See ya' next month, and remember: Be Like Me!

... you laugh at farts.

... you clap if people drop things.

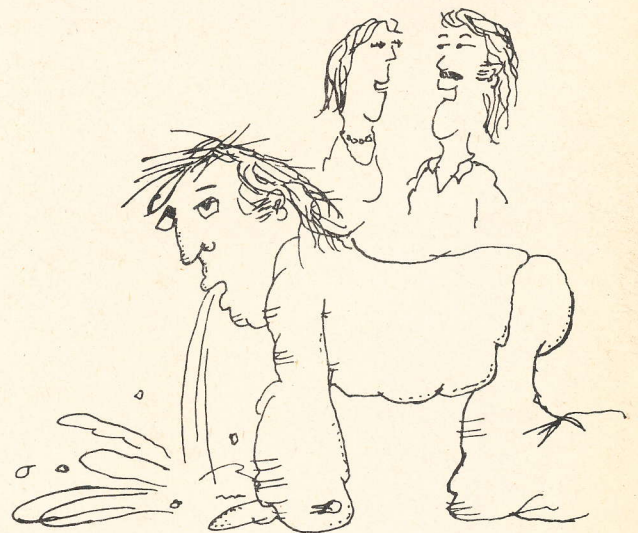

... you wear novelty underwear.

THE OLD GRAY MAG JUST AIN'T WHAT IT USED TO BE DEPT.

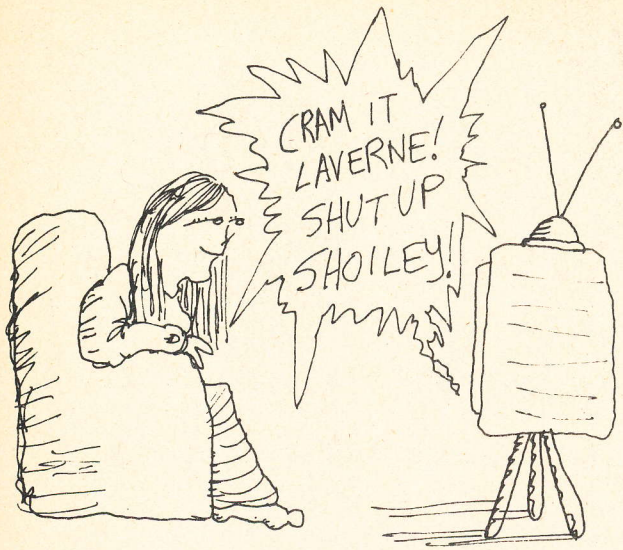

You Know You're Really

... you yell things at the flicks.

... you get sick at parties.

... you like TV.

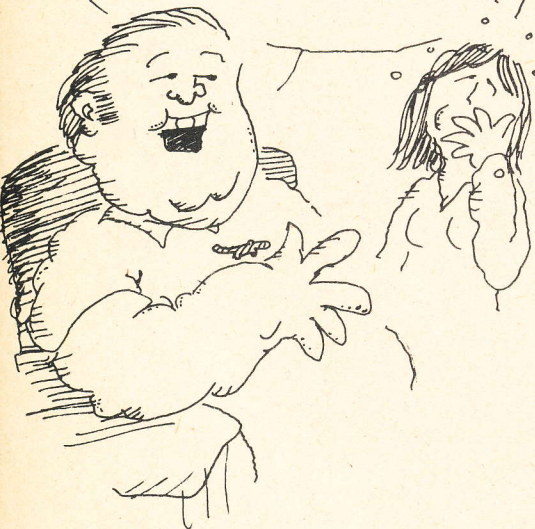

... you recite Monty Python routines.

Not Funny When . . .

... you dress up in the same weird clothes every weekend for four years.

YOU CAN'T UNLOAD THE BOWLING BALLS WITH A PITCHFORK!

... you tell dead baby jokes.

THIS DAVE BERG IS A SCREAM.

... you still read Mad.

Tressider the People's Dog★

Today, as every day we find Tressider the people's dog on patrol at the Fascist Stanford Union, proudly displaying the red bandanna about his neck - a symbol of the bloody anti-Socialist oppression and the ever vigilant struggle by all good people against this horrible Capitalist reality.

Normally, Tressider the People's Dog searches for evidence of Capitalistic Waste and pollution that is clearly perceivable to all good people who will but gaze upon the grounds of the Fascist Tressider Union. But today, Today Tressider senses something new blowing on the winds of change!

With Iron Willed resolution Tressider seeks out the source, the well spring of this new alluring sexual conception.

Rejoice, People, rejoice, for Tressider the people's dog has indeed discovered someone of sound, liberal mind and body!

NOW THAT...

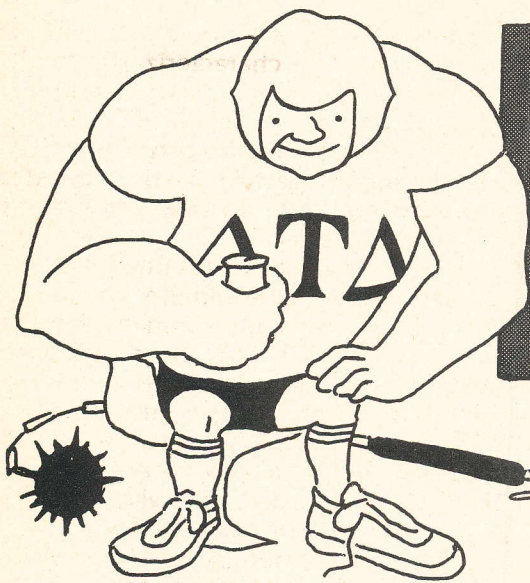

Now that the Old Boy has exposed his more maudlin side let us return to the actual purpose of these editorial ramblings; that being a review of the various important issues and personalities on the Farm and the insulting thereof. Take for instance our comrades-in-writing downstairs at the Daily. It is rumored that their new editor is of the female persuasion. And a bonnie fine lass she is if I may be permitted an admittedly weak pun. However for all her good qualities she has been known to display certain Fascist tendencies. For example she recently ordered a negative burned so as to prevent it from falling into the wrong hands. And although she has not yet taken to rolling steel balls in her hand the Old Boy has taken appropriate precautions and installed locks on his bookcases in preparation of her next round of inflammatory escalation. Nevertheless it must be understood that the Old Boy and his staff have at least as high an opinion of Ms. Rodden as does her own editorial staff.

To continue in this vain the Old Boy points out that the editor and business manager of the Quad and one-fourth of the COP are also women. It is even whispered that President Lyman's wife is a woman. As this partial list shows, women are achieving an increasing visibility at this Great Western University. In fact the Old Boy has even noted a group of strange beings characterized by long hair, sweaters with bumps in them and a curiously pleasant fragrance hanging about his own bastion of chauvanism. This has led him to the perfectly logical conclusion that we, the sexist, women-hating Chaparral have been invaded by a bevy of beautiful babes. Little do they know that they have penetrated virgin territory.

In conclusion it must however be admitted that women do strike a small note of fear in the Old Boy's heart though not his mind. This is not due to the commonly held belief that he has no mind. The Old One, due to his amazing longevity is one of the supreme intellects of this or any other institution. He regularly peruses such august journals as the New York Times, the Washington Post, the San Francisco Chronicle, the Petaluma Picayune and that ubiquitous tower of conservative thought, the London Economist. But to return for one final attempt at resolving the burning question of women, the old saying about licking them and joining them comes to the mind of the Old One who is in reality too old for such foolishness although he is not below thinking and writing about them. Speaking tongue-in-cheek (for lack of a better place to put it) the Old Boy's final comment on the woman problem is that we'll just have to live with them.

It Sure Smells Italian!

I must confess, the extent of my knowledge of Italian is limited to food and conversations with hores, but what's happening at the Italian theme house this year is a crime in any language. Resident Fellow nna Maria Napolean was conveniently unavailable for interview, so I investigated this gangrenous chancre upon the Stanford University housing system incognito.

When I entered the Italian theme house I was surprised to note that it wasn't the disgustingament I assumed it to be at all. In fact, the architecture was rather remarkable, and the house was in god repair, as if it had been built just last year. In additin to a well appointed lounge, I was informed by a grup of zombielike residents that a videotape TV, a typewriter, and a piano would soon be forthcoming.

Residents told me that they weren't alloed to have dinner guests, the reason being that this wuld dilute the quality of the Italian atmosphere. For is reason, they explained, resident fellow Napolean irites twenty guests per week, as her guests, she enlightes, are capable of enriching the Italian experience.

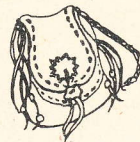

I was told of a poetry reading at the house earlier this quarter that was attended only by Italian apartment faculty, and an opera class that was atteled by nobody.

At that moment, Napolean sashayed in the room, obviously inebriated, wearing an incredibly low cut dress. She began cursing loudly in Italian, sieking and yelling until one obsequious student hurrd down to the wine cellar and returned with a fancy French wine. She quickly removed the cork and commered gulping the wine straight from the bottle. "It's a vicus circle," one cowering student commented, "She seams until she gets wine, then she gets drunk and soams some more. She staggers to the bottom of the stai and hurls abuse at individuals till all hours of the nig. Nobody's had a good night's sleep all year."

Unfounded Rumor Dept. - What promint Senate grandstander has been seen staggering drur and uninivited at various dorm social functions aroud campus? Speaking of drunk drivers, what COP lassocently totaled the new BMW that daddy gave her?

Stanford Justice Dept. - Remember last fall when a grad student bought votes for a dollar, spendg the $50 limit? He received 48 votes. . . .

See You next month, and remember: Time is interesting, but it's not important. . . .
