Bigger is better! How to do it!

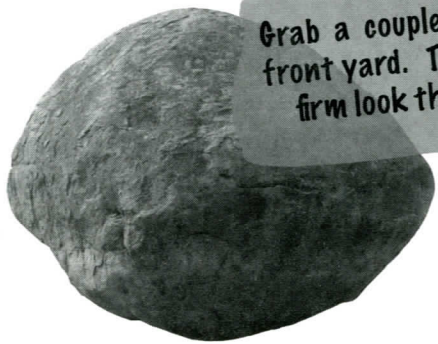

It sure isn't easy when you're the only girl in the grade without a great set of soup bowls. Gym class sucks, and you know that seventh-grade guy only springs for "big titted bitches". Well, now you can be sure to get that hottie to let you borrow his Sharpie with these handy tips!

Stuff a wad of the soft-stuff in your top. It can be any size you want, and you can always get more! ...just don't get it wet!

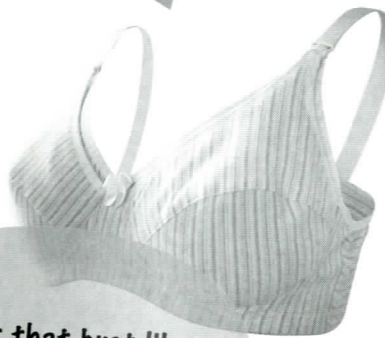

Your dumb older brother's hackysacks fit right in your bra. Best part is... they don't shrink!

Grab a couple round rocks from your front yard. These'll give you that sexy firm look that drives the boys wild!

Put some bras in your bra! They boost that bust like wow! And if you want, you can just use them as extras when you really need a "change of pace".

An appointment with a cute young surgeon can guarantee stunning results! He may know your secret, but you'll look so good post-op that it won't stop him from sending you that after-lunch text.*

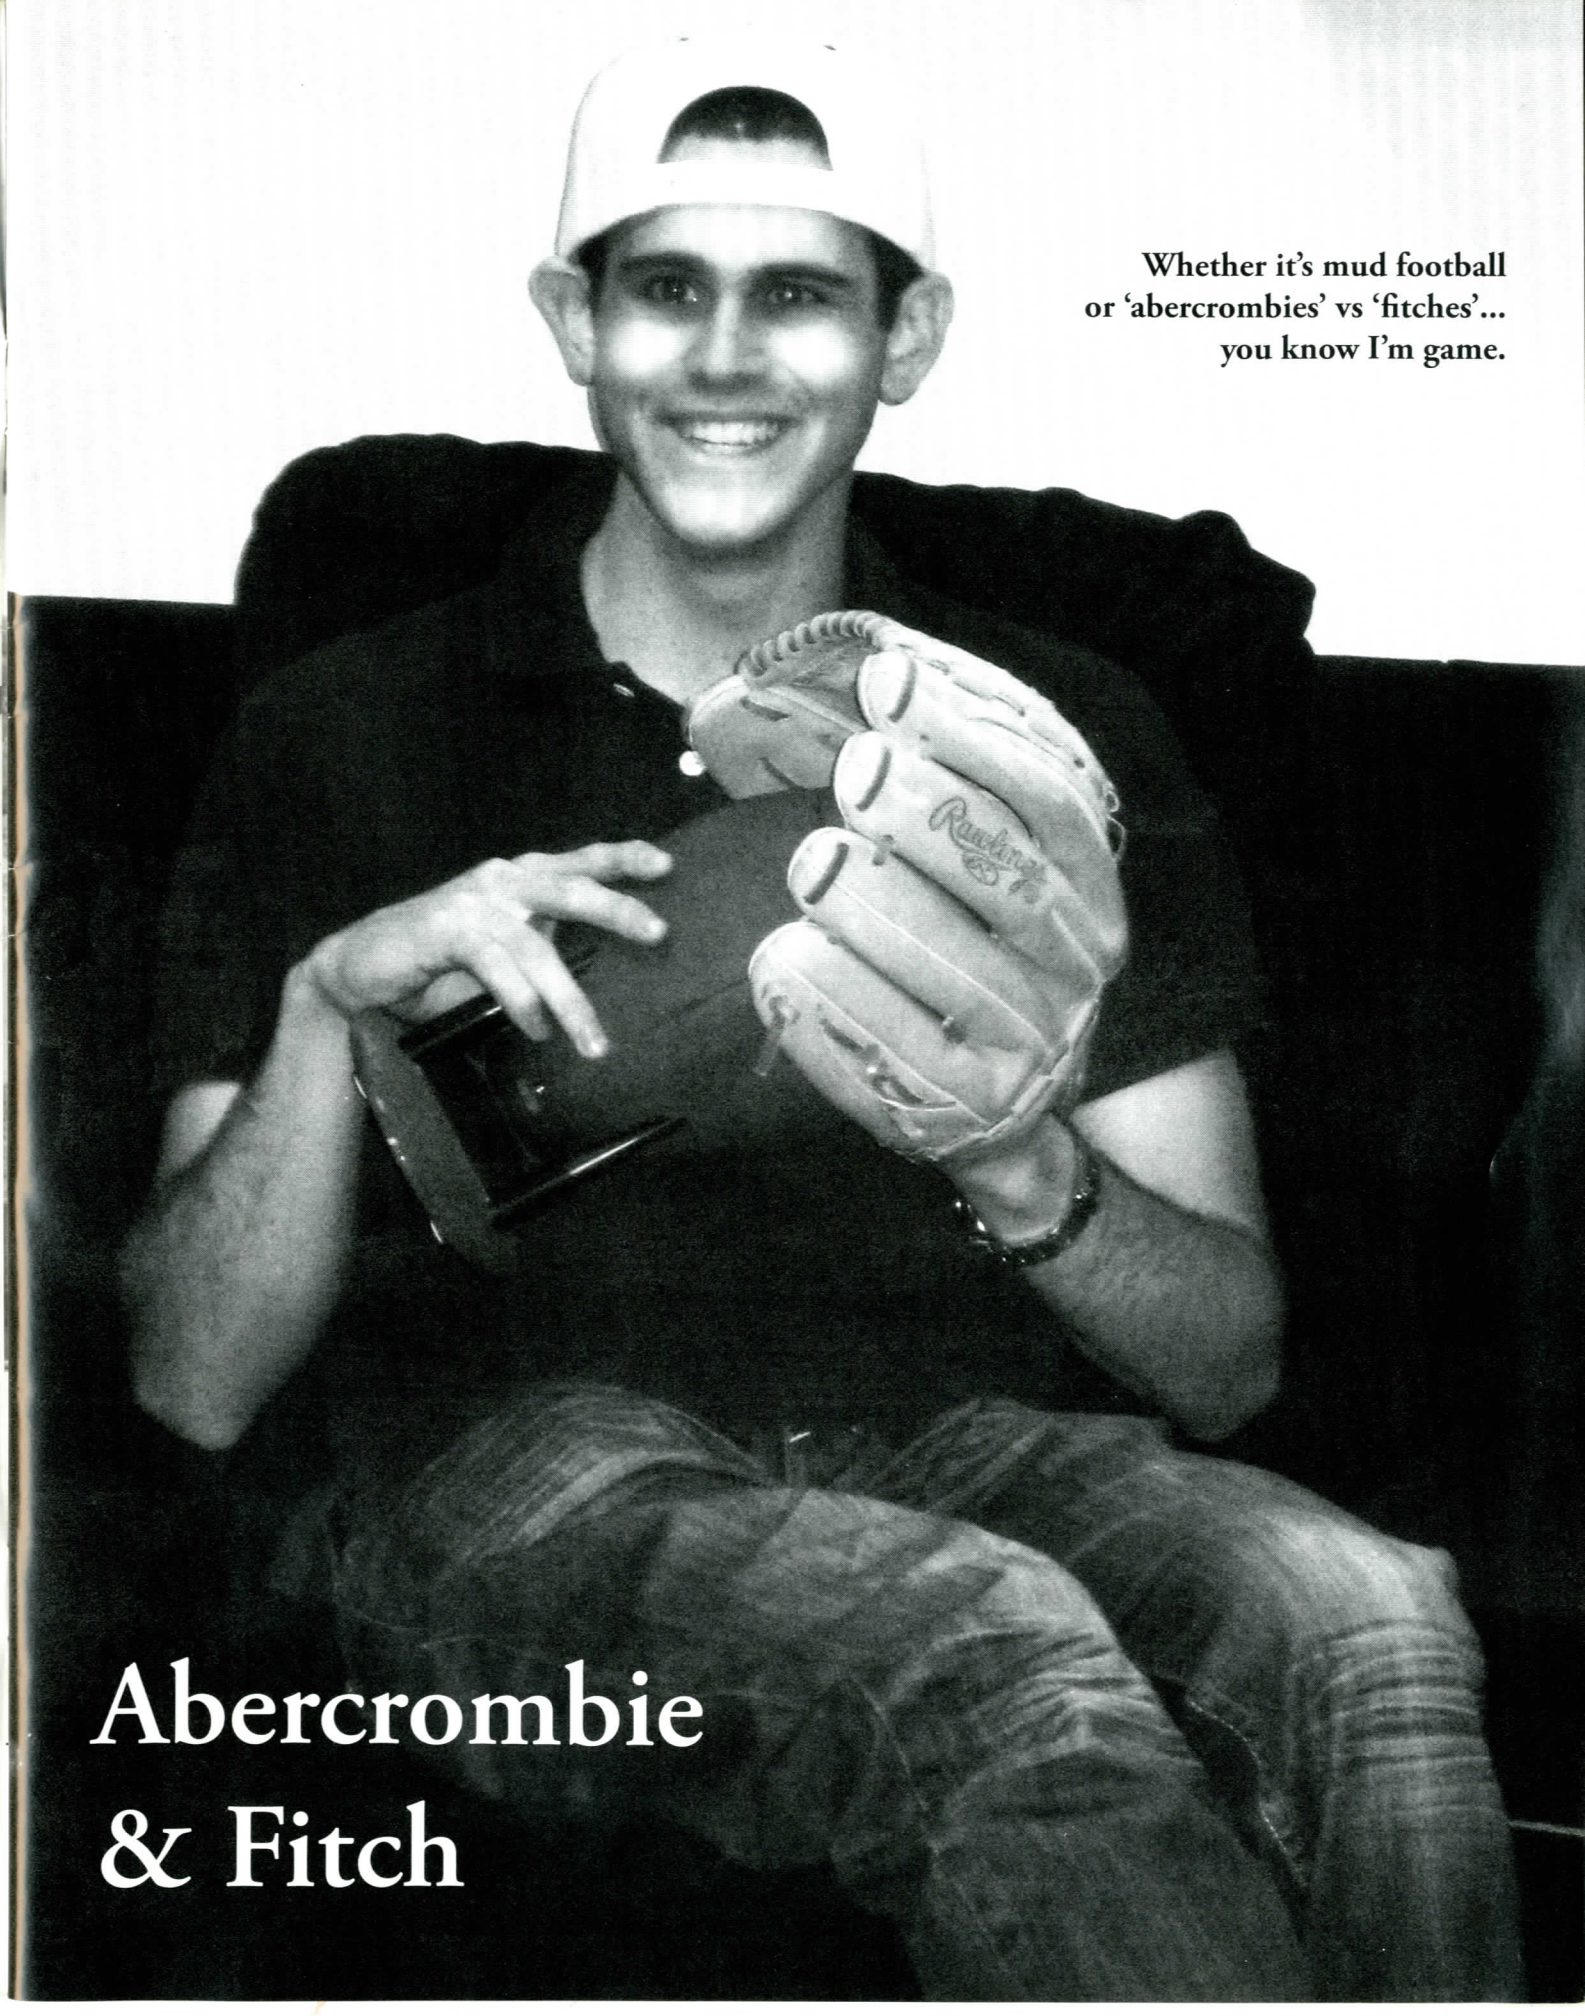

Socks work well too!

*Breast augmentation surgery runs the risk of internal bleeding, fluid collection, infection, pain, symmastia (also known as "bread loafing"). Procedure has been known to lead to various post-operation psychological issues, such as increased risk of depression, suicide, and body dysmorphic mental illness. Patients exhibiting such side effects should seek immediate medical or psychiatric attention and probably should not have undergone surgery in the first place. Why a girl your age would want cupcakes the size of actual cakes baffles most in the medical community. Look, you're making your mother cry. Still, we don't mind taking you under the knife for a grand (Borrow it if you have to. We really don't give a shit). Call Dr. Van R. Stine (501) 344-6767

Now That summer's almost here, I can tell you all about my brand new bathing suit. It's this great one-piece that looks a lot like something my mother had when I was young. You guys know me, always talking about my mother. Everyone knows how much of a role model she was for me and my sister. We love you, mom.

My mom, in fact, was a huge inspiration for this issue. Whenever I go over to her place for dinner, it seems like she has something to say to me about young ladies! Well, I decided that would be the inspiration for this issue: you! That's right. This issue of InbeTween is especially meant for all the beautiful girls blossoming into young women.

Know That I'm watching you, and you're all doing amazingly. So graceful. So delicate. Yet so strong and powerful. I know your families are proud of you, even if your little brother is being a real twerp!

Now That you understand this issue has been built just for you, hopefully you'll take some of the advice seriously and not just look at all the gorgeous pictures! Yes, handsome boys are out there, but try to focus on how wonderful womanhood is. The magical mystery of your period! That fun struggle of unfair pay rates! That look your doctor gives you! All blessings that Eve bestowed upon we feminine goddesses as she munched into that ripe apple of knowledge. Yum!

I am excited for all of you. Exploring my budding body for the first time is one of my favorite memories. You know! Seeing just what all the fuss was about, and finally understanding why my uncle on my thirteenth birthday gave me some of his 'Adult Apple Juice' (I know it was supposed to be our little secret, Uncle Chuck! Sorry! I hope I don't get into trouble!).

Now That my uncle probably hates me, perhaps I'll try calling up my dad. My mom says he left us for some hussy, but my mom is such a beautiful woman and such an inspiration (There I go again about my mom! I love you mom!) that I can't believe he'd see anything special in an Chilean woman named Teresa. You know, because he's gay.

I want to repeat how much you all mean to me, you readers. I want to touch every one of you.

Party Tips For Having Fun...
And Being Safe!

How to Have a Great Time at a Party and Avoid Being Hypnotized

Star of the hit movie The Bozo Gene, Kelly Francisco gives you tips on how to get out of a party without being duped by a shady hypno-freak.

It's a major buzzkill- you're having a great time at a party at some random guy's house when, the next thing you know, it's the next morning and your pants are off and you're next to three guys on a futon in a garage someplace. What happened? You don't remember and your head hurts worse than a red hot sunburn. You've been hypnotized! How can you make sure you avoid that trap next time?

Be Extra Careful

The easiest way a girl gets hypnotized is by not being aware. Never set your cup down! It's the easiest way for a shady guy to slide on over and hypnotize you. Also, scope out the scene as soon as you enter the room. Ask yourself, "What guys here do I know I can trust, and what guys have I heard are hypnotizers?" By sticking around the good guys and avoiding the magicians, you can be sure no fella has an easy opportunity to make you fall deep, deeply asleep.

Hang Out With Your Girls

Girls are much less likely to try to hypnotize you, as odds are they've been hypnotized themselves. No girl likes the feeling the morning after they've been hypnotized, so why would they subject it to other women? It just doesn't make sense.

If you hang out with your friends (Girls!), then they're also able to better take care of you if you do get hypnotized. Who knows what happens when a girl is hypnotized around just guys!?!? No one knows firsthand, and even though it's probably no big deal, you can still have a good time when you're hypnotized and with your girls. They'll take pictures and you can laugh about it the next day.

Put Out

Recent studies all show that girls who give it up pretty easily are less likely to be hypnotized. Though scientists are as of yet unable to determine why the link exists (Typical male scientists!) they do say that the sluttiest girls are less likely to be hypnotized.

Be warned though! Just dressing slutty does not stop a girl from being hypnotized. You have to go through with your whoreish intentions to truly be immune from hypnosis.

What if it's Too Late?

If you've already been hypnotized, then there's pretty much nothing you can do. Try to drink lots of water, and find a cute guy. In fact, you'll find a lot of guys that weren't cute before will be much cuter for a little while. Once your head starts hurting, though, that cuteness seems to fade. A solution to this is asking the guy you're with to hypnotize you again.

And remember, hypnosis can come in lots of forms, not just a dangling watch. Some girls report even having been hypnotized when a man slipped an M&M into their drink. Just try to enjoy the experience and thank the man the next morning for such a great time.

Where you go to get all the questions answered that you don't want your parents to answer for you.

Dear Jezika,
Every month I have my period. It sucks. Sometimes I bleed for days and my boyfriend won't touch me. Other times I feel sick, too sick to go to the sickest parties. Last week my friend had a party for Miley Cyrus (that's Hannah Montana)'s new movie and I totally couldn't go because I didn't feel well and I wanted to go but my mom wouldn't let me so I tried to sneak out but then I felt really bad so I couldn't sneak out and then I was miserable so I ate 21 cookies. So how can I stop my period?

Dear Your-Period-Sucks-Balls,
Don't worry! This is totally a problem lots of girls face! Every girl has her period at some time! I'm sure lots of girls feel the way you do! There are a couple of ways you can deal with this problem. First you could get pregnant! If you're pregnant you don't have your period for 9 whole months! That's enough time to see Miley Cyrus's new movie and make enough money at your job to pay for the ticket! The other thing you can do is stop eating. My friend doesn't eat and she hasn't had her period for a whole year! Whatever you choose to do, be comfortable with who you are! You are a great and beautiful person and if the world doesn't love you then they suck O.o

<3 Jezika

Dear Girl-With-Shitty-Man-Toy,
If your boyfriend is super hott you totally shouldn't break up with him! That's a total no-no! But if he's treating you like that then you need to put that boy in his place. You should date an older man, like your science teacher. Older men are great because they're old so they've dated a lot of shitty people so they appreciate you for being so hot and really cool and not having stupid old woman problems like taxes and saggy boobies. Then when your boyfriend sees you dating this older man he's going to be mad jealous and he's going to want to be nice to you. But no matter what you do, do not break up with your boyfriend. If you're not really pretty you don't know if you can get another one! :D Also if you break his heart then other guys will think you'll break their hearts too. But if you just keep a lot of boyfriends at once then if you loose one or two you have some others as backup. And you're science teacher will think you're really mature for being able to manage so many things at once! : z

<3 Jezika

Dear Jezika,
I'm fat.

Dear Fatty,
Lots of girls are fat. There are so many things that fat people can do that people who are not fat can do too. Don't worry! Fat people are people too! If you do feel bad then there are some things you can do. You could get pregnant. Then people won't really think you're fat anymore, they'll just think you have a baby. If no one will have sex with you because you're such a fatso you can just tell people you have a baby. Then boys will think you're a slut and will want to have sex with you and maybe you can loose some weight that way. If not you can always just stop eating or just throw up everything that you do eat. If not you can just take laxatives or cocaine. If you don't have money for cocaine try crack, it's a lot cheeper. :]

<3 Jezika

Dear Jezika,
How can I make everyone love me? Sometimes when I go to school everyday people hate me and call me names. Sometimes everyday I feel stupid because I'll say something and people don't listen to everything I say like the last time I told a story to my friend the other day and she just didn't say anything and people weren't paying attention to me. My mom tells me that I need to have confidence but I know I'm awesome and other people don't know and then when I tell them they don't listen so I feel really bad and then I get upset and cry. But I want people to like me so what do I do?

Dear Friend-Frenzied,
You should bring a really hot boy to your next spring dance. Then everyone will love you and want to be your friend. You should also buy really expensive gifts for everyone at your school. If you can't do that then have your dad do it for you. If you buy a lot of stuff for people all the time then they'll like you. If you're really really poor then just put a shit ton of glitter or some crap you get at Claires. Or you can steal it. Just make sure you steal from a lot of different stores and not a lot of stuff from one store. When you're shoplifting make sure you wear an extra big bra. Put the stuff you want to steal in your bra so if you get caught you can say that they can't search your bra because only your boyfriend and your science teacher can do that. And then when you give all that stolen stuff all your friends will love you and think you're really really rich. No matter what you do don't forget how awesome you are! If you don't believe it how are other people ever supposed to? You're great and people should love you!!!!!!!!*! ;) ;) : *

<3 Jezika

Dear Jezika,
I have these little bumps on my chest. They look like pimples but I thought you could only get acne on your face. Is this normal?

Dear Red-Alert-Patient,
You are NOT OK. Call 911 Immediately! You can only get pimples on your face. Those bumps are most likely cancer and even if you see a doctor right away you will most likely die! You could be dieting right now from skin cancer, cervix cancer, prostate cancer or alzheimers and not even know it! It's a good thing you caught this early! Be careful because a lot of times people don't want to think they have cancer so they lie to the doctor about their symptoms and then they are surprised when they die! I don't want you to die! Go online and look up all the symptoms for cancer and tell the doctor you have them. Good Luck!

<3 Jezika

Dear Jezika,
How do I know if I lost my virginity or not. One of my friends said she lost her virginity to a tampon, is that possible? What if you have only had anal sex or oral sex? What if you've never had sex but you are pregnant? Can you lose your virginity to a baby?

Dear Preggo,
Your virginity is really complicated. If you don't think you've lost your virginity then you probably haven't. But if you've had sex then you're not a virgin, EVEN IF YOU'RE UNDER 18! Anything that has the word sex in it counts as sex. So like anal sex is sex and oral sex is sex but giving a guy a blow job or a hand job doesn't count so that's not sex. If you use tampons then you are still a virgin but if you have sex with a tampon you're not a virgin anymore. But if you haven't had sex or a baby you're fine. Good Question!

<3 Jezika

Dear Jezika,
The girl next to me has this like really cool locker and like it's like really like pink and like sparkly and like stuff and I like really like want a like really cool locker too because you see like Britnay like really like has like lots of like friends and like I want like lots of friends too because she's like super cute and like I want to be like super cute too yah know? So like how can I like make my locker like super cute like Britnay?

Dear Crummy-Locker,
If your locker is not super cute you totally need to accessorize it! I can't believe that's not the first thing you did the first day of school. O-M-G. Major Issues. So the first thing you need to do it get all your books out of your locker. Get a boyfriend so you can put your books in his locker or make him carry them around for you. If you can't get a boyfriend then get a duffle bag to bring your books around in and tell your teachers it's your purse. Prada has some really cute ones. Then go to an Arts and Crafts store and get tons of glitter and glitter glue your name all over your locker. You can also go to Martha Stewart's website for some ideas. Just take what she does and make everything pink and gold and then add rhinestones. Make sure to also put up tons of pictures of your friends. If you don't have any friends just cut out pictures from Hollister catalogues and put them into picture frames next pictures of you. If that doesn't work you can always just have a baby and make him your friend.

You just ordered your favorite dish from your favorite restaurant. You immediately reach for the:

- a Ketchup. Most people don't put it on rice, but then again, you're not most people.
- b Nothing. You take your hotdog plain, thank me very much.
- c Sauerkraut. Forgive and forget, you always say.

Your dad hits you in the mouth pretty hard and pretty often. Your idea of a perfect pet is:

- a A playful puppy that you can take to the park.
- b A cuddly kitten that purrs at your feet after work.
- c A turtle with the word "irony" carved into its shell.

You just found out your husband isn't a professional golfer after all. To blow off some steam, you:

- a Go to the spa with your girlfriend. A massage would be nice.
- b Smash a cream pie right in your lying husband's face.
- c Sleep with his caddy. (Or his nine iron. Naughty!)

Which holiday are you?

What does the way you handle hypothetical situations say about what type of woman you are?

A total hotty hits you with his car and you're bleeding pretty bad. You smell alcohol on his breath. You ask him:

- a For his phone number.
- b To call the police and an ambulance and a hospital.
- c If he sees your dog anywhere. (You were crossing the street with your little dog.)

You struggle mightily with urges to burn your neighbor's house to the ground. Which holiday are you?

- a Thanksgiving. All that food and your loving family.
- b Columbus Day. Without it, there'd be no Thanksgiving.
- c Thanksgiving. Black Friday shopping deals with your black, Friday friends!

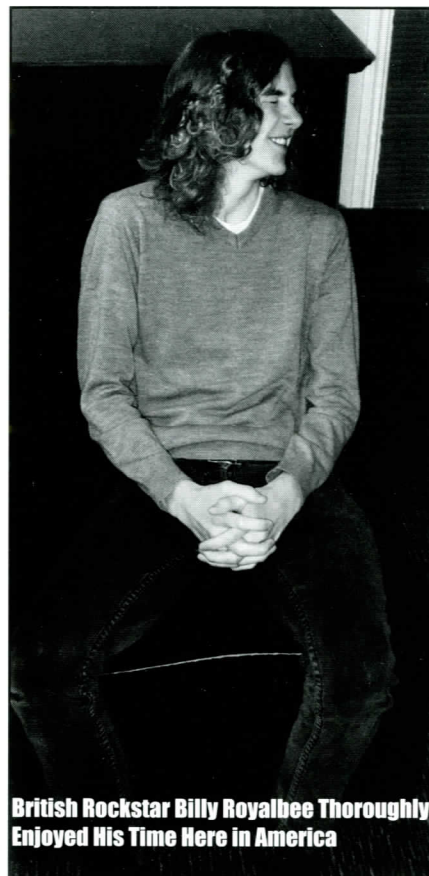

If you answered mostly A:
You are Thanksgiving!
Everyone loves spending time together around you, plus you give everyone an excuse to do a jigsaw puzzle together once a year.

If you answered mostly B:
You are Father's Day!
Smart, loyal, pragmatic. You're the perfect day to celebrate your role model growing up. You're Dad's chance to light up a cigar and put off mowing the lawn just this once.

If you answered mostly C:
You are Arbor Day!
It seems like everyone remembers you being a much bigger deal when they were younger. Perhaps it's because Earth Day's kind of taken what you were supposed to be and did it up right. Trees are terrific, sure. But who gives a shit?

Billy Royalbee Reflects on the Conclusion of His American Tour

British Rockstar Billy Royalbee Thoroughly Enjoyed His Time Here in America

"Wonkers. It was absolutely wonkers," says acclaimed British pop music sensation Billy Royalbee. "Just wonkers."

Royalbee just concluded a forty-five city tour of the states, encompassing sixty shows over three months, of which fifty-seven sold out.

"It was a real honor, truly, to have that many people pay to come see me. If only we hadn't forgotten the ruddy drums."

It turns out, while Royalbee was scheduled to perform sixty shows, he in fact performed none. Due to a shipping mixup, the drums for Royalbee's backup band (The Bees) never showed up in the states.

"So I thought... well, I may as well go see everyone anyways, right?" says Royalbee. "I think the other guys just wanted to cancel the whole tour. They said something about how they could just buy another drum set any old place and then that would be that. I said, 'No way. I still want to see all of this beautiful country.' And that was that. They stared at me for a bit, confused look and all wonkered out."

When asked as to if he was sure he had heard his bandmates correctly, Royalbee said, "My favorite city had to be Louisville. That place was wonkers! I got to see that wooden bat factory. I couldn't believe me eyes! So many wooden bats! I'd never seen one before, seeing as we don't have any baseball in England. Couldn't believe how nice of a town Louisville was."

When asked about the reception he received when he told the audiences he wouldn't be playing any music every night, Royalbee replied that he loves all of his fans. "And they love me, too. The first few nights, the audiences were confused. I told 'em what happened, and that I was sorry about the post not tenderin' our drums properly, and they seemed a little bit testy. I'd then let them know that I thought their city was delightful though, because I truly did think so. Every city was wonderful. Especially since I didn't have to worry about performing."

Royalbee's agent recently filed for bankruptcy on Royalbee's behalf.

An Awkward Movie Conversation

My friends and I were just hanging out at my place one day, and we put on the movie Fievel Goes West. Anyways, there's a lot of tension throughout the whole movie between Fievel's parents, Marietta and Billflesh. There are even some times when you're pretty sure Billflesh is just going to smack Marietta right in front of their kids.

Anyways, one of my friends said something like, "I wonder if those two little mice are going to get a divorce." Everyone in the room thought she was ridiculous. No one even thought divorces were still around anymore. I let slip that my parents were divorced, and the look everyone gave me made me want to die. I thought I was upset when my parents told me they were getting a divorce, but that was nothing compared to how I felt when my friends found out!

-Jessica, 46

Distressed at the Dance

At the big dance this cute kid Tony asked me what kind of music I like. I panicked and just said the first word I could think of: Supertramp. He thought I was cool because I was such a non-conformist, listening to music he hadn't even heard of. But disaster struck that night when he looked up Supertramp. It turns out they're not even a real band!

Embarrassing Moments Gone Totally Wrong!

My Brother's Best Friend

I'd been in labor for 12 hours already. Ched, had been by my side non-stop since the water broke, as supportive a husband-to-be as he'd been the day we decided to go through with it. Mom and Dad had been there most of the time, too, pacing in the back of the room and wishing they could be of any help. So we were really at the homestretch, the nurse kept telling me, "It's not going to be too much more, you just need be to strong." But all of a sudden my older brother walks into the delivery room with one of his hawt friends... right when I'm open like that! Oh my god, sooo embarrassing! Of COURSE that happens to me!

-Josephina, 16

Peas in A Pod

Kelsey and Lindsey were at lunch talking about how Sherry was totally padding. I asked them what "padding" was and they just pointed and laughed. I felt warm, bitter tears pour down my adolescent cheeks. That night, before I went to bed, I wikipedia'ed padding, but I accidentally typed "podding." The next day over chicken patties I jibber-jabbered this way and that about legumes, lentils and lupins. The weird thing was though that they ate up all my lies. The next day Kelsey and Marie came to school with a full package of edamame shoved into their both their bras. I was embarrassed for them!

-Heidi, 13

Texting Troubles

When I thought my boyfriend was cheating on me, I started furiously texting him. Unfortunately I accidently sent one of the texts to my dad! It actually wasn't that bad, it just said "we're LITERALLY over" or something like that, but when my dad's girlfriend saw he had a text from another girl, she thought he was cheating on her! Which was really embarrassing, because he was cheating on my mom!

Virgo

Your friend Jill is the one who has been stealing all of your socks.

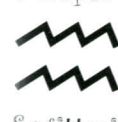

Libra

Listen Sharon, I think Jill and that cutie Freddy have been doing it in the dessert refrigerator after school. Even though you told her you wanted to take him to prom! She should keep her hands OFF. I guess she isn't your real friend. You'll probably have a fight with her today.

Scorpio

The stars are aligning! Remember that time last week when Kelly told you and Jill that she couldn't go to the mall that day because she had to go to her Mom's funeral? Well I talked to Freddy, and he said Kelly doesn't even have a mom. He said she went to the mall with Slade, Jeff and Carey instead!

Sagittarius

Nevermind why I was talking to Freddy, Sharon. Have you been listening to Jill and Carey again? Well let me tell you a little juicy bit of celestial information, honey. They don't want you to find out about what they've been doing with Freddy and Jeff behind the geology classroom. So they blame me. I know who your real friends are, Sharon. And I'd never touch Freddy.

Capricorn

Sharon's a whore, Kelly. Mars in your sixth house advises that we all stop talking to her. Freddy and I are behind you all the way.

Aquarius

You know how Sharon's been getting all those A+'s in social studies? It's because she's giving Mr. Davidson blow jobs. I know because Kelly said Sharon told her but made her swear not to tell a living soul, but she still told me because we're much closer than she is with Sharon. Also because I'm psychic.

Sure, but please...next time with a bit more GUSTO! [laughs]

[laughs] You’ve spent a career motivating performers, but most of your talent is still high school aged. Is immaturity a big problem?

An immaturity is a beautiful thing in a child. There is nothing wrong with having your head a bit in the clouds as a schoolboy. One day you immature it, the next it happens. That is the philisophogosyny that brought my family to America from Sicily as schoolboys and what let me reach my potential.

You’ve been behind practically every major boy band of the last 20 years. Which group is your favorite to listen to?

Leesten, for fun? [laughs] Surely you must joke. When most men are done with work, the Discman comes on. For me, it is the Discman going off that lets me finally unwind. [laughs]

[laughs] Geez, I am just plum GIGGLY today. Sorry Mr. Gusto, I don’t usually- No, no, no apologies. [laughs] I am no be-[laughs]..I am no btetter! The giggles! They are contagious! [laughs] They are dangerous!

...whew...OK...Anyway, this Sounds Like Symmetry bunch looks like the next big thing. What are some hit singles we should look for on their new alb--..albu- ...[laughs]

[laughs] We are having a good time, aren’t we.

Fash-in or Fash-out?

Dominiq, acclaimed fashion designer and judge on the hit reality show Redressin’, recently sat down with InbeTween to give us what it takes to be a big time model.

Girls come to me all of the times and they are saying, ‘Dominiq, Make me beautiful.’ And I tell them I says, ‘I try, of course I try.’ But what the girls are not understanding on their owns is that fats are disgusting.

Recently there are a lot of things in the media saying, ‘Oh, well, the media is putting all of this unfair pressure on girls to look unrealistically skinny,’ which is doing a huge disservice to our young women. It gives them excuses to eat like dogs, piling food down their throats until they look like fat dogs. These girls think that they can stop feeling bad about not looking like a super hot super model because the media is unfair and no one actually looks that super hot. That is terrible. Of course people look that super hot. Those are photographs, girls. Photographs of people. Skinny, beautiful, super hot people. Not like all the fatties. I hate the fatties.

I am tired of all the fatties. The fatties come up to me and they ask, ‘Dominiq am I beautiful?’ and they are not.

DOMINIQ’S HAIR TIPS:

- ◆ Conditioner is more important than shampoo.
- ◆ Brushing can be fun but tiring.
- ◆ Try not to eat hair.

It’s super easy and an awesome good time! It’s a shutter of fun!

Megan and Chels hit the Vegas Clubs!!!

Sometimes girls just have to let loose and p-a-r-t-y! And don't we love it! The tween club scene gets old after a while, so we sent our very own staff party monsters, Megan and Chels, to the ultimate club spot for tween girls... Las Vegas! These are some highlights from their trip to the sunshine state!

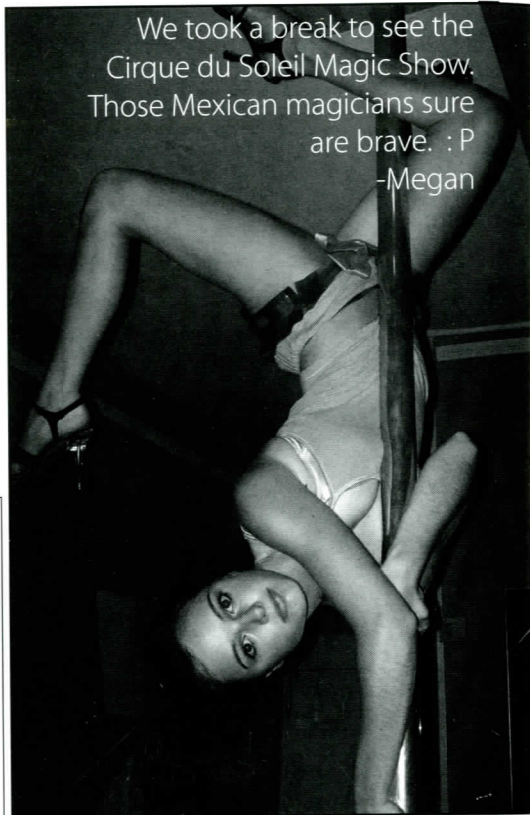

Basically what we did was dance! We hit the floor as soon as we got in! There's a club in the freaking airport! Chels and me were only in the city for like a second and we were already in the action! Woowool!

-Megan

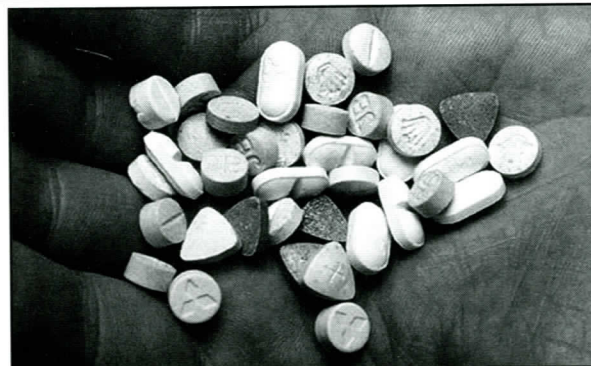

We took a break to see the Cirque du Soleil Magic Show. Those Mexican magicians sure are brave. :P

-Megan

This is Enrique. He came all the way from Fort Worth in Florida just to party Vegas-style, baby! It was great meeting Enrique. He even got Megan some Tielinal cuz she didn't look too good. She was smiling for the rest of the night. He invited us to his hotel for a hotel party, but I was too tired. Megan, you went. How was it? <3

-Chels

It was soooooo fun! I went to sleep soon though. BTW, I must've danced a lot cuz I was s-o-r-e the next morning!

-Megan

Get me some more of that Tylenol! And I don't even need the chewables anymore! Enrique helped!

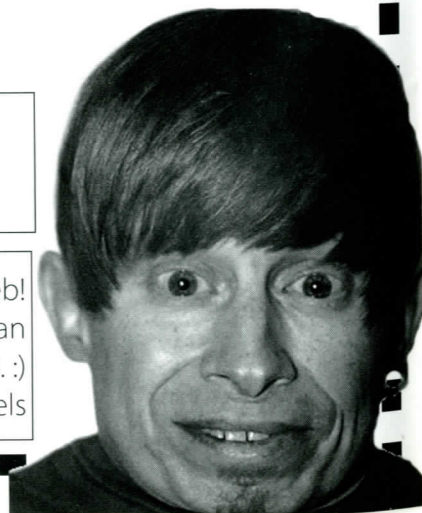

-Megan

Chels totes thought this was J-Bieb!

-Megan

You're a fucking slut, Megan. That douche fucked you. :)

How to Tell If He Likes You Back

Some-times a guy will make slightly more eye contact with a girl he wants to make his girlfriend. But don't worry if he looks at you less than he does with most girls - he might be acting out of shyness. If he looks at you a normal amount of time though, sorry girl, it's over.

If he happens to be taking a lot of the same classes as you, he might be trying to spend more time with you. Of course it might be a total coincidence. Either way though, he likes you.

Which way does he cross his legs when you're on a movie date, towards or away? If his legs are pointed at you, you're looking at boyfriend material. Otherwise he probably thinks of you as kind of like an ugly sister.

I always tell this one to my girlfriends: See if he tends to jumble his words a bit when he's talking to you in private. Watch out girl, he could be retarded. But he definitely likes you back!

Do you find that most guys are interested in you? If so, this is good, he probably likes you.

Pay attention to how he acts around your friends. It's a really good sign if he likes them, he's probably trying to impress you. That's not to say it's the end of the world if he finds them annoying or just plain stupid. He might just be shy.

Make sure to remember this next trick - it works literally often. Put a stick of gum on the back of his ear. If he scratches let him go.

When he asks you to hold onto his wallet when he goes to the bathroom (hopefully he doesn't have pockets) quickly examine his driver's license. If his first name is of the likes of Dylan, Rob, etc., he's looking for a soulmate. Also, if he's an organ donor it shows commitment.

Count the number of times he laughs at one of your jokes/mispronunciations. If you can stay focused on this task you're probably smart enough to snag him.

Sideburns? You're in the clear.

Hunk Alert! Hunk Alert! Hunk Alert!

They're the band known around the world: Sounds Like Symmetry, or SLS as the SLS Klubhouse™ members refer to them. They're rise to fame is famous, but we at InbeTween caught up with the guys to get to know their personal stories. Hold on tight!

Avi B is probably the last person you'd ever expect to be in SLS, much less sing; he was born without vocal cords! For the first fifteen years of his life, Dumbstin, as he was affectionately known, waded through life, smiling all the way but saying nothing. Perhaps that's why his fans call him the mama bear of the group, tenderly looking after her cubs while he coos lullabies in his malty, baritone voice. Don't let his beard fool you, though! He's quite the neat freak! "I take twenty-five minute showers, sometimes!" Avi B confesses. "I could shampoo and condition my hair all day if it wasn't such a waste of water. I love the planet."

Kenny is the softy of the group. He loves his bandmates as if they were brothers and his brothers as if they were bandmates. He doesn't fuss much, preferring to hang out with his friends and fans. His idea of a perfect morning is sleeping in late, even past when his parents would normally get him out of bed! Kenny's big secret, though, is that he's gets nervous around girls! "I can't help it!" says Kenny.

Jem is the nice guy in SLS. He spent two years studying advanced sociology after high school, and he loves being around people, especially fans! He loves paying complements to a sad friend, as he puts it, "Anything to cheer up their day!" Jem has a sister who he says he used to get in fights with when he was young. "A lot of times, we both wanted to sit in the front seat. Then we'd start to argue. It got so bad, we started flipping a coin." Jem was quick to add, "But I totally love her!"

Finally, there's the kid brother of the group, Avi K. The only orphan in SLS, he's quick to remind everyone that they need to love their families. "I know Avi B, Kenny, and Jem love their dads, but I know that I'd really want to love a dad if I had one, so I like to make sure they call them every day." In fact, Avi K joined SLS looking for a figurative older brother to be his role model. "I just want someone to look up to. No one will officially do it, they all say it would be a lot of responsibility. So for now, I just try to love all of them the same: as hard as I can."

SLS made headlines for their sugary voices and catchy lyrics. What's made America (and the rest of the world!) fall in love with them is that they're all such great guys. Too often in the Hollywood glitz and glammer of stardome do singers forget their roots. Not SLS! "We're so thankful to our families. We all know that we'll never forget where we came from," says Jem. "Except, of course, for Avi B."

What in the WORLD are they up to?

InbeTween's Stock Tips of the Month

Google [GOOG]

The biggest company in the country, it only makes sense to invest in them. They have a pool at their global headquarters, so they know how to have fun too! Look for this stock to do well.

Justin Bieber [JBBR]

His star just keeps rising with no sign of decline in site. This stock will never crash, and the sooner you hop on board, the better off you'll be in 5-10 years when it's valued at three-thousand times its current amount.

Stock to Avoid:

Target [TGT]

My friend Sarah was at Target a week ago and she said she saw a homeless man peeing into a microwave. She said security was pretty mad, but if that company allows tramps to even start peeing into the electronics, I shudder to think how their financial books are run.
